MNC President Chartier Congratulates David Chartrand on Re-election

Ottawa, ON -- Métis National Council (MNC) President Clément Chartier is congratulating David Chartrand on his re-election as President of the Manitoba Métis Federation.

“David Chartrand has a distinguished record of tireless service to Métis Nation citizens in Manitoba,” said President Chartier. “Under his continued leadership, the Manitoba Métis Federation will become an even stronger voice for the Métis Nation.”

The Manitoba Métis Federation held its province-wide election on June 10, 2010. In unofficial results, Chartrand was re-elected to his 5th term as President with over 80 percent of the vote.

President Chartier is also congratulating all elected or acclaimed Vice-presidents and Regional Directors, and thanks all Métis Nation citizens in Manitoba who turned out to vote.

“Métis Nation citizens in Manitoba have elected an impressive team,” said Chartier. “I look forward to working with all of them to furthering the Métis Nation agenda in Manitoba and across the homeland.”
