

Métis Women
British Columbia

REGION 2 REPRESENTATIVE

KATY CARSON

Katy Carson is the Women's Representative for Region 2 and the Vice-Chair of the Métis Women's Council. Her family names are Ross, Short, Vivier, Delorme, and Thibault and her family comes from Duck Lake, SK, where they held scrip and St. Francis Xavier, MB, where her ancestors are buried.

Katy grew up in Sḱw̱x̱wú7mesh territory, in what is colonially known as Gibsons, BC and has lived on the territories of the Halq'eméylem speaking Peoples, specifically the stolen, occupied lands of the Qayqayt and kwikwə́łəm First Nations as an uninvited guest.

Previously, Katy has served as the Women's Representative on the North Fraser Métis Association board. In her professional life, she contributes to Cultural Safety and Humility in the education and healthcare sectors.

Katy is delighted to represent the women of Region 2 and to have the opportunity to advocate for the needs of Métis women in BC.