

Métis Women
British Columbia

REGION 3 REPRESENTATIVE

MELISSA KELM

Melissa is a dedicated advocate for Métis rights and culture, currently working with Lii Michif Otipemisiwak Family and Community Services.

A former Vice President of the Two Rivers Métis Society, Melissa has long been passionate about advancing women's rights and promoting Métis history.

She is deeply committed to preserving and sharing the heritage of her people, with family names that include Graff, Sinclair, and Inkster. In her personal life, Melissa enjoys beading and drumming, celebrating the traditions that connect her to her roots.

A proud mother, she takes great pride in her son, Dakota Kelm, who has been an active member of their Métis community and involved in governance.

Melissa's work and personal endeavors are driven by a deep love for her family, her community, and her Métis heritage.