

Métis National Council President Caron's Statement on Papal Apology at Maskwacis

A group of board members, staff, and survivors were in Maskwacis representing MNBC at the Papal visit yesterday, to witness what may be the first step towards reconciliation. Many First Nations, Inuit, and Métis groups from across Canada were in attendance to hear the

Métis National Council President Caron's Statement on Papal Apology at Maskwacis

Pope's apology.

Cassidy Caron, President of the Métis National Council, issued a statement on yesterday's events. You can read the full statement here.

Full Statement Here