

MNBC is inviting Métis individuals to come together who have attended Residential School, Day / Mission School, or are intergenerational survivors to build relationships, support networking, and have an opportunity to share experiences. Métis survivors have expressed that they are ready to share their stories by content in a book, audio, or gathering.

Attendees joining the forum will have the opportunity to attend the BC Lions game on September 30th, 2022, be interviewed for the Métis Podcast Series, and share their or their loved one's experience through content writing, photograph, art, and more.

This session will take place in Richmond, BC, September 30th – October 2nd, 2022, at the Radisson Hotel Vancouver Airport. Travel, accommodation, and meals will be provided. MNBC will coordinate all travel and accommodation, and meals on-site. Registration will close on September 13th, 2022.
