

To kick off season two, we asked Métis National Council President, Cassidy Caron, a very important question – what has Leadership meant to you? President Caron shares how her current role has changed her own meaning of leadership and the ways youth can find leadership positions. This interview offers an insightful look into the role of the Métis National Council President, as well as the importance of strategic alliances and partnerships

Métis Speaker Series Season 2, Episode 1: Rebuilding Through Leadership with Cassidy Caron

for the Métis people.

To listen to the full episode click the button below.

Listen here