

September 7, 2022 (Surrey, BC) - Métis Nation British Columbia (MNBC) is seeking a full-service architecture team.

The successful respondent—a single firm with everything in-house or a team including multiple firms—will work with MNBC to develop a culturally informed MNBC Architectural Design Book; design MNBC-led housing and mixed-use projects; and work with MNBC and developers on projects led by others.

The RFI is posted to BC Bid as opportunity #HH-2022-02, and is linked below. Please contact Darrin Brightman through the BC Bid portal or directly at dbrightman@mNBC.ca with any questions.
