

In this episode of our Métis Speaker Series, we discuss the child welfare and justice system with Peter Lang, CMA Community President. Peter has had his own unfortunate experience with the system in connection to his late son, Nick. The interview looks at the ways that the Métis Nation can support those who share a story similar to Nick's. Having been failed by the justice system, Peter shares his advice with other parents.

Métis Speaker Series Season 2, Episode 5: Child Welfare and the Justice System – Peter Lang (CMA Community President)

To listen to the full episode click the button below.

Listen here