

AMIK AND AIR CANADA PARTNER TO RECRUIT INDIGENOUS FLIGHT ATTENDANTS!

Do you dream of visiting places throughout Mother Earth and proudly representing the Indigenous People of Canada? Imagine using your traditional teachings of respect and honour to host over 40 million customers annually as they embark on their travels. Our client Air Canada is seeking talented, respectful and caring Flight Attendants to help take them from the Best Airline in North America to a Top 10 Global Airline.

Treating every customer like a family member ensures every trip is special and a great experience for travelling customers. Air Canada is looking for customer driven people to be a part of their team. Join a growing airline that has permanent positions open in three major cities: TORONTO, CALGARY & VANCOUVER.

REQUIRED

- You are customer-obsessed: always striving to deliver safe, exceptional customer experiences, creating a relaxing and enjoyable bookend to every trip.
- Are at least 18 years of age, hold a valid Canadian Passport and pass Transport Canada security clearance.
- You hold a high school diploma or equivalent.
- Readily available during irregular working hours (morning, evening, weekends, stat holidays).
- Additionally, shift work and on-call shifts is required and valued.

SALARY, BENEFITS & TRAINING

- $27.19/hr
- Permanent position
- Competitive benefits plan
- 7-week paid training program

APPLY TO:
stephanie@amik.ca
Attention: Stephanie Beaulieu
Recruiter, Indigenous Search

